

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost I would like to express my deepest gratitude to our beloved Guruji and my guide Padmashree Dr. H R Nagendra. I am very much thankful to Guruji for picking me up as his student at the critical stage of my Ph.D. Despite of his busy schedule, he used to give personal attention to listen to me and sort out the issues. The door of his office was always open whenever I ran into a trouble spot. He consistently steered me in the right direction whenever he felt I needed it. Completion of this PhD work would not have been possible without his guidance, encouragement and timely counsel. He always gave me the moral support and the freedom I needed to move on. Sharada Shankar and Shankarji of Guruji's office were always supportive. With a smile on her face always, Sharada adorns Guruji's office with special warmth and abundant love. She has an exemplary executive assistant and hospitality skills. Time and again, she went out of her way to help me in fixing up many issues related to my research. My respectful Pranams to Guruji, heartfelt thanks to Shankarji and a big warm hug to Sharada Shankar.

I would also like to thank my co-guides Yoga Ratna Dr. SN Omkar and Dr. Manoj Kumar Sharma for their continuous support, patience, motivation, and immense knowledge. First few years of my PhD was spent at IISc, under the direct guidance of Omkar Sir. Not only him, but the entire department helped me to understand the research work and processes. Later part of my PhD was spent at NIMHANS under the direct guidance of Manoj Sir. Their association truly helped me in widening my knowledge on research from various perspectives. Without their passionate participation, insightful comments and inputs, this study could not have been successfully carried out. Mentors like them are very rare and I could not have imagined having anybody better than them for my research work. My heartfelt Salutations to both of them.

Many of the S-VYASA professors, faculties and staff offered their support to me. In particular I express my sincere thanks to Sri. Ramachandra who guided me in developing the short meditations for the yoga module. Special thanks to Kishore, who used to sort out all IT related issues from time to time. Similarly students of IISc and faculties at NIMHANS have passionately supported this project work. I extend my sincere gratitude to all of them. My special thanks to Dr. P Marimuttu, Additional Professor, Dept of Bio Statistics, NIMHANS for all his support in data analysis. He taught me many statistical approaches and concepts.

I sincerely acknowledge Sri. Venkateswara Vedic University, Tirupati for providing financial assistance to this study. My respectful pranams to the then Vice Chancellor, Prof. K E Devanathan, the then Registrar Prof. G S R Krishna Murthy and in-charge of research projects, Dr. T Umesh Bhat. My heartfelt thanks to Padmashree Dr. Prahlada who was instrumental in getting the project funding as well as overseeing and guiding the project work.

I extend my thanks to Dr. Thomas Brunner, one of the authors of a popular adolescent anger scale for sharing the scale and according permission to use the scale in my study. He not only shared the scale free of cost but also clarified many doubts, gave many inputs for my study. I am thankful to all the experts who were involved in validation of the module as well as scale. During the process of scale development as well as module development, draft scale and module was sent to 5 yoga experts and 5 psychology experts. I extend my thanks to all of them.

I thank the management and the staff of Jyothi Kendriya Vidhyalaya, Kanakapura Road, Bengaluru and Auden High School, Banashankari 3rd Stage, Bengaluru, the two schools who participated in the study. I also thank all the children and schools who participated in this research study. I would like to thank two of my well-wishers Sri. Narasimha, Jyothy Group of Industries & Institutions and Sri. Nagesh Shastry, CEO of National Cooperative Bank who helped in identifying the schools for the study.

My respectful Pranams and indebtedness to all the Vedic Scholars and Spiritually enlightened souls who guided me in the process of literary review. I thank each of them while naming a few including our respected Vice Chancellor, Sri. Ramachandra Bhatji, Sri. Gopalakrishna Bhatji, Sri. Sushruta, Sri. Veereshananda Swamiji of Ramakrishna-Vivekananda Mutt, Tumakur, Vidhwan Sri. S V Sham Bhat, Sri. Sudhakar Sharma, Sri. Shatavadhani Ganesh, Dr. Prasad and Sri. Gururaj. My heartfelt thanks to Smt. Shylaja Pratap, a Veda & Sanskrit scholar and a high school teacher for her inputs. With respectful Pranams, I remember Late Veda Brahma Sri. R K Kumaraswamygal who blessed me and clarified many doubts on spiritual perspective of anger.

I thank all the psychologists, psychiatrists, counsellors, educators and research scholars who helped me during my literature review and allied work. A few to remember Dr. Satya Prabha of NIMHANS, Dr. Gururaj Kharajagi, Dr. Hemendra, Dr. Ravi Prakash of MS Ramaiah Medical College and Hospital, Dr. Ruchi, Psychiatrist of Abhaya Hospital, Dr. Meena Jain, Chairman of Child Welfare Committee (CWC).

I thank my friend and a counsellor Smt. Narmada Dilip for supporting me in administration of anger scales in schools. My thanks to Abhishek Tunga and Nagesh who assisted in conducting yoga sessions in the schools. My heartfelt thanks and warm wishes to Mr. Govinda of IISc for all his timely help. I thank students of Dr. Omkar at IISc who helped me in many ways during the initial days of my PhD work. I also thank Sri. Subbu Bhaiya who extended a helping hand.

My respectful Pranams and thanks to all the faculties and classmates of Journal Club. The best part of my PhD learning came from the Journal Club. While remembering the stimulating discussions in JC, I extend my heartfelt and respectful special thanks to the extraordinary couple Dr. Amrut Sir and Dr. Nidhi Madam. I always hold and cherish the insightful interaction with them. I would like to extend my all-time Yoga Gurus Late Sri. Sripathy Sir, Sri. Marat Sir, Smt. Lalita Madam and Smt. Mala Madam.

My nephew Master Pranava Shastry (Chintu) was a subject himself and instrumental in bringing his friends for group discussions, scale administration and also to provide students' perspectives on Anger. May God bless you abundantly Chintu. I thank all those who directly and indirectly supported this PhD work. I thank my fellow classmates Gauri Rokkam, Shiva, Giri and Sukanya for the moral support.

I am grateful and obligated to my husband Sri N S Vishwanatha for his unfailing support and continuous encouragement throughout my years of study. He stood by my side during the inevitable ups and downs of conducting my research work. This accomplishment would not have been possible without his whole hearted support and co-operation. I also thank my son Varun who helped me a lot throughout the study. I am indebted to my mother Smt. Jayalakshmi Shastry. I also remember my beloved and most respected father, late Sri. Lakshmi Narayana Shastry.

The most auspicious thing that could have happened to me in my life is the महापुरुष संश्रय (protecting care of a perfected sage) of Omkar Sir. The gratitude, respect, admiration and love I feel for him are so immense that I can never find enough words to truly express the influence of him on me. My sincere, heartfelt, profound gratitude and ever indebtedness to Omkar Sir. Finally surrendering to trimurthi roopa Dattatreya.
